The Southern District began on 27th January 1912.
To mark its 100th birthday a celebratory dinner has been arranged.

Centenary Dinner on Friday 27 January 2012, at the 'Grumpy Mole' restaurant
at the Inn on the Green in Brockham, Surrey at 7.00 p.m.

Starters:-

Thai Chicken Kebabs or Potato Skins with Cheese and Bacon or North Atlantic Prawns and Avocado or Mushrooms 'Norbury Blue'

Mains:-

Moroccan Chicken or Steak and Kidney Pudding or Mushroom and Brie Wellington or Fillet of Salmon or Venison Wellington

£22.00 per head for starter, main course and coffee
(Desserts available at additional cost)

Numbers are limited, so please book your place by Thursday 14 December by sending payment along with your menu choice to:-

Bernard Hawkins (bernhawk@lineone.net)
57 Middle Street
Brockham, Betchworth,
Surrey RH3 7JT

Details of venue at www.thegrumpymole.co.uk

(Cheques payable to Bernard Hawkins)

100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100